

Better Together

Heartfelt congratulations to the graduating class of 2024. Your batch has left an indelible mark on our department, creating unforgettable memories and setting a shining legacy for us juniors to follow. We celebrate your accomplishments today and every day.

To honor your unending intellectual curiosity, wisdom, and unwavering determination, the department is organizing a farewell gathering in your honor. This event is a tribute to your implacable spirit and dedication.

We invite you to join us tomorrow as we bid farewell and wish you continued success. Your presence would mean the world to us. We look forward to celebrating with you and wishing you all the best as you embark on this new chapter. May life's journey be kind and rewarding.
