Time: 11:00 am

Venue: Ishwarchandra Vidyasagar Auditorium

Organized by: Department of History & NSS in collaboration with IQAC, Uluberia College

Speaker: Ms Mahua Banerjee, City Mission Manager, DAY-NLUM, Uluberia Municipality, Uluberia, Howrah.

The introductory lecture was delivered by Dr. Jayashree Sarkar, Associate Professor in History, Uluberia College on women's perception of self-reliance blended with the spirit of nationalism in pre-colonial era. Ms Mahua Banerjee in her valuable and insightful presentation focused on various schemes, undertaken by Uluberia Municipality, to ameliorate the women of economically weaker section of the society for a journey towards self-reliance. A woman beneficiary of a scheme recounted her account of becoming self-dependent. It is hoped such a comprehensive information will have a positive response from the society in the long run.
